Dear Mr. Jaffe:

I'm writing to you about a very disturbing article I have just read. It told of the treatment of chickens in factory farms. It was so terrible that I cried.

I know you probably think it's stupid to get worked up over chickens, but animals of all kinds are being tortured daily. Most of Europe has a law that has been in effect for over 10 years banning forced molting (starvation) of chickens. We need to catch up!

The way we treat other beings says a lot about what kind of people we are. I hope we are better than that.

So, I hope you will support the petition to ban forced molting (docket 98P-0203/CP) as I do.

Thank you for your consideration,

Sincerely,

Terry A Kennedy
